15. Seniors who are interested in going to prom, your ticket is "free" as long as you paid sr. dues, $60 for a guest (underclassman or from outside Of LJHS).

Guest Contracts available online and at the finance office. Seniors Must sign up (with school ID) with behavior contract at by end of lunch on June 2nd. Tickets available for purchase starting May 26.

No prom tickets will be sold on Friday, June 3rd, as it is a half day with early instructional release time allowing students and faculty time to prepare for Prom. Students who do not attend a full day of school will not be admitted into the dance.

All students must attend their full regular day of scheduled classes. Again June 3rd is a half day- if you do not attend a full day of school, you will not be admitted into prom.

- 16. Seniors. Please fill out the senior survey discussed by your counselors this past Monday. Your surveys are due by this Friday night, 11:59 PM. After this time, the survey will be closed. Your answers will form the backbone of the senior issue of the LJHS Hi-Tide, which will be handed out at one of the upcoming senior only events (probably senior breakfast). Thanks.
- 17. Congratulations to Ryan Robson for being accepted as one of twelve interns who work will this summer for the San Diego Union. Ryan is the second straight editor-in-chief-elect of the LJHS Hi-Tide to be selected to be a part of this prestigious and exclusive internship program.
