Principal's Report	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Dr. Chuck Podhorsky - Principal - Informational</li> </ul>	Dr. Podhorsky's report stated that LJHS students are not in decline academically. [Ds and Fs as indicators]. LJHS still graduates 98% of its seniors, much higher than the district average. Megan Cox asked about any lulls in student academic averages throughout a semester; Dr. Podhorsky acknowledged a lull, but also that LJHS teachers have been effective in helping students raise grades in time for progress reports. LJHS budget prep has been done, and the site is ready to commit its report to the district. LCFF funds will again be marked for a partial counselor's position and after school tutoring. Money is available for additional LJHS teachers in the tutoring program. Schools will be given a district supplied College tutor. Dr. Podhorsky shared a new English Dept. focus on addressing academic writing at each grade level, as a strategy for continuing to support LJHS students academic success.
Adjournment		Motion to adjourn was made by Megan Cox. Cathy Hutchins seconded the motion. All voting members voted in favor. Meeting was adjourned at 4:04 pm.
